COUNSELING@NORTHWESTERN SUMMER 2017 UPDATE

2017 continues to be a strong year for Counseling@Northwestern: In June, we graduated another class and welcomed a new cohort. Here are some facts about our currently enrolled and recently graduated students.

Graduates

In June, we graduated 17 students, bringing our total number of graduates to 54. These students are prepared to pursue licensure as clinical mental health counselors in their states of residence.

- 8 June graduates have already received job offers.

Currently Enrolled Students

In June 2017, our tenth cohort started classes. The program continues to attract interest among aspiring mental health counselors across the country.

- 33 new students started classes.
- 155 students returned to the program.

Enrollments by Geography

Placements by State