

NORTHWESTERN RESOURCES:

The Office of Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

The Office of Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) offers counseling and support services to students free of charge. They offer a series of workshops dealing with issues that are central concerns of many students, and a stress clinic.

www.northwestern.edu/counseling

The Religious and Spiritual Life Office

The Religious & Spiritual Life Office is a place to reflect and connect; it seeks to support the quest for meaning and purpose through exploration, practice, and growth in Northwestern's religiously diverse and inclusive communities.

www.northwestern.edu/religious-life

Student Enrichment Services (SES)

Student Enrichment Services is committed to building an inclusive Northwestern community by engaging students and their allies with programming and dialogue around the low-income and first-generation experience.

www.northwestern.edu/enrichment

Student Assistance and Support Services (SASS)

The Student Assistance & Support Services team assists students by coordinating campus and community resources to promote well-being when dealing with complex issues. SASS members are available to consult with students, faculty, staff, families and community members/providers to determine the best approach for a student's current situation.

www.northwestern.edu/studentaffairs/dos/about-us/our-office/assistance-support

Office of International Student and Scholar Services (OISS)

The Office of International Student and Scholar Services provides advising services and supportive programs to Northwestern's international students and scholars. For information about visas, working in the U.S., and more, visit:

www.northwestern.edu/international

Office of Civil Rights and Title IX Compliance

The Office of Equity works to create a culture of access, belonging and accountability for all Northwestern community members. That includes supporting those impacted by discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct and providing reasonable accommodation to individuals with disabilities.

www.northwestern.edu/civil-rights-office

Northwestern University Health Services

Northwestern University Health Services provides medical care to students, and offers health promotion programs to help students develop healthy lifestyles. For information about their range of services and how to make an appointment, visit their website:

www.northwestern.edu/healthservice-evanston

Multicultural Student Affairs (MSA)

Multicultural Student Affairs (MSA) enriches the cultural experience of Northwestern through leadership and education programming, providing opportunities for community engagement and identity expression, and assisting students in navigating the University.

www.northwestern.edu/msa

Center for Awareness Response and Education (CARE)

The mission of CARE is to create a culture of healthy sexuality at Northwestern University where sexual violence, relationship violence, and stalking are not tolerated. CARE is a confidential space for students impacted by sexual violence, relationship violence or stalking, including friends or partners of survivors.

www.northwestern.edu/care

Campus Inclusion and Community

The mission of Campus Inclusion and Community is to work collaboratively with the university community to cultivate inclusive learning environments through the intentional engagement with difference.

www.northwestern.edu/inclusion

Accessible NU

If you have been diagnosed with a disability, you may receive accommodations in your classes by registering with Accessible NU. Accessible NU can also refer students who suspect they may have an undiagnosed learning disability.

www.northwestern.edu/accessiblenu

Women's Center

The Women's Center is dedicated to fostering a campus climate that promotes equity and enriches the personal, professional and academic lives of all members of the University community, particularly women students, staff and faculty.

www.northwestern.edu/womenscenter