Employment and School History

Please attach a detailed resume or curriculum vitae accounting for all time periods from the start of your undergraduate studies to the present, beginning with your most recent activities. Please include schooling, part-time, summer and full-time work experience, travel, job search, etc. Specify dates, employer/school, job title, average number of hours per week, and primary responsibilities. Pay particular attention to describing activities in the field of mental health.

Disclosures

If your answer to either of the following questions is yes, explain fully on an attached sheet:

- Do you have a known disability (physical or emotional) that requires special accommodations?
 (Please see University Policy statement below regarding non-discrimination) Yes No
- Have you ever been suspended or required to withdraw from any school or college? Yes No
- Have you ever been separated from any branch of the armed forces of the USA under conditions other than honorable? Yes No
- Have you ever pled "guilty" or "no contest" to, or been convicted of a crime? Yes No

Answering "yes" to these questions does not constitute an automatic bar from admissions. Factors such as date of offense, seriousness and nature of the violation and rehabilitation will be taken into account.

The Family Institute at Northwestern University requires all applicants who have received conditional admission to either the Master of Arts Program in Counseling Psychology or the Master of Science Program in Marriage and Family Therapy to complete an online background check to determine criminal history. Having an adverse criminal history finding does not necessarily preclude admission. Determinations are considered on a case-by-case basis. In the event that information from the background report is utilized in whole or in part in making an adverse decision with regard to an applicant's admission, before making the adverse decision, the Institute will provide the student with a copy of the consumer report and a written description of his or her rights under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act.

University Policy Statements

It is the policy of Northwestern University not to discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, handicap, or veteran status in matters of admissions, employment, housing, or services or in the educational programs or activities it operates, in accordance with civil rights legislation and University commitment. Any alleged violations of this policy or questions regarding the law with respect to non-discrimination should be directed to Director of Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action, and Disability Services, 720 University Place, Evanston, Illinois 60208-1147, 847/491-7458; Office of the Provost, Rebecca Crown Center, 633 Clark Street, Evanston, Illinois 60208-1101. Northwestern University reserves the right to change without notice any statement in this application concerning, but not limited to, rules, policies, tuition, fees, curricula, and courses.

Research Interest

Our program and therapy practice is rooted in research. There are two tracks within the MSMFT Program: The Clinical Track and the Clinical/Research Track. The clinical/research track is designed for students interested in obtaining more research experience, either to be competitive for Ph.D. programs or enter research careers. The clinical track is designed to for students interested in a clinically oriented career. Students in both tracks take the same required courses and have the same clinical requirements. Please check the box in which you are currently most interested.
